

SPEAKING: For Healthcare Leaders, Administrators, Practitioners

A vision to raise the bar on health and vitality while lowering personal and corporate health care costs.

With over two decades of experience in the healthcare field, Judy Burgio has become a thought leader on the future of the industry. She draws upon her traditional clinical practice – as an advisor and consulting pharmacist to hospitals – as well as her work as an Integrative Health Specialist promoting whole health and vitality.

Judy combines the mind of a scientist, the skill of a seasoned coach, and the heart of a compassionate practitioner. In her presentations, she focuses on the emerging new technologies and insights in healthcare as well as the latest techniques for ensuring sustainable change.

Judy presents fun, heartfelt, and content-packed programs. She will light up the boards with new insights, ideas, and practical techniques that can immediately be put into practice and make change that sticks. Utilizing her experience working closely with people making extraordinary personal and professional change, she shares compelling personal stories that her audiences can relate to.

Judy has a unique and bold vision for transforming the industry's future. She is equally comfortable speaking about the health needs of individuals and describing her bold new vision for the future of healthcare in our country.
